8. K-12 Report

HCS has implemented a weekly testing program for all K-12 students and staff, and we are four weeks into the process. The program has been successful and is improving with each week as we work through the kinks. We hope that this program will allow us to loosen some covid-related restrictions to enable more onsite school while providing an additional safety measure.

HCS administration has consulted with pediatric infection disease experts, the DOH and the NJDOE on reducing program distancing from 6 feet to 3 and has also surveyed K-8 families on their interest in moving to 3 feet to allow for more onsite school time once teachers are vaccinated.

9. Lower/Middle School Report

Lower and Middle School students created cards to welcome the Upper School back onsite on Monday, March 1.

Also on Friday, March 5, the K-2 classes met virtually with Jersey City author/illustrator Cat Min about her new book Shy Willow through Little City Books.

The Middle School HCS debate team participated in a debate tournament on Saturday, March 6. In the varsity division, Finn Getz placed 19th out of 138 speakers. In the novice division, Sophie Pitino won 11th place for best speaker, Hayden Faricelli won 7th place for best speaker, and Carolina Fernandez won 6th place for best speaker. As a team, Sophia, Hayden, and Carolina won 3rd place overall. As a school, HCS won 3rd place for highest percentage of wins.

10. Upper School Report

We are absolutely delighted to be teaching and learning in the new building!! Students in 9th and 10th grades attended orientation and team building events on March 1st and 2nd and then began classes in the new building on March 8th. 11th and 12th grades were our first students in the new building on March 4th and 5th!

We are continuing with the Hybrid plan of students attending school on-site 2 days/ week and remote 3 days/ week to allow for physical distancing and cohort separation by grades. Teachers are working hard to make this successful by moving to different classrooms throughout the day.

Alum parent David White and current parent David Lambert have kindly offered their service to help us document and share the new space. Watch for the upcoming video! We hope to have a ribbon cutting ceremony later this month.

We held a virtual Move-Up Day for the 8th graders, complete with a virtual tour of the new space. 8th grade parents received a communication about the Upper School and were invited to contact Principal Joanna Weintraub to discuss the program. We also held a very successful virtual Information Session for interested families.
