8. School Calendar Reminder

Monday – Friday, February 15-19, 2021 – All schools are closed for winter recess.

Tuesday, February 23 – Board Meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

9. K-12 Report

HCS resumed instruction following the winter break in a fully remote model. No earlier than January 6, 2021, all K-12 staff as well as all K-8 students who hoped to resume onsite instruction on January 11 provided proof of a negative COVID test to HCS. Over 250 students, staff and household members participated in onsite testing we provided. Two community members tested positive through this testing initiative.

This month, students across grades K-12 have been examining civil rights and activism and Dr. King's statement that "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'" Although we could not safely congregate and march down Washington Street as a school this year, we found alternative ways to honor the legacy of Dr. King as a community as students sought inspiration from activists and reflected on principles that empower and prepare them to promote equity, challenge injustice and become agents of change. This year, we asked families to support and reinforce the mission of HCS by facilitating and encouraging conversations with their children about the importance of activism as well and participate in a community Flipgrid compilation which will serve as a virtual gallery to highlight activism this year in lieu of the March on Washington Street.

10. Lower/Middle School Report

On Wednesday, December 16, the Lower and Middle Schools held a virtual winter concert, "Snow Place Like Home" Virtual Holiday Show & Singalong. Organized by music teacher Mr. Gavarny, the show featured video submissions of our K-8 students singing, playing musical instruments and dancing.

Third grade teacher, Jenna Wernikowski, has been named a 2020 New Jersey Exemplary Elementary Educator by the New Jersey Department of Education, one of only 93 teachers in the state to receive the honor this year. Ms. Wernikowski received this award, which seeks to recognize teachers that, "have a positive impact on their students, colleagues and the school community; possess a clear vision for quality teaching and learning; and may ultimately receive recognition at the county, state and national levels."

The fourth graders at Hoboken Charter School teamed up with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) for the third year in a row in their "Hero Squad" campaign. During this three week campaign, students were part of a "hero squad," raising money in whatever way they could for patients with blood cancers, many of them being children just like themselves. With a focus on one hero child with cancer, students fundraised always remembering that, "every hero needs a squad." They made individual online fundraising pages and sent them out to family and friends, as well as offered their time and help in exchange for donations. They even completed a workout with The Max Challenge of Hoboken to earn money raised from sponsors. Simultaneously in class, students participated in Common Core STEM lessons, with a focus on learning about cells to inspire students to be scientists working toward a cure. They also participated in a social emotional learning curriculum to teach empathy and other important skills. Additionally, students learned many other valuable skills such as drafting emails, letter writing, adding money, and creating videos. In just three weeks, only one class of 22 fourth graders raised an incredible $11,557.45 for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

11. Upper School Report

We are delighted to report that staff and administrators are in the new building and setting up. There is much to be done as we prepare for students. Teachers have engaged in training around Trauma Informed Practices and are planning activities to help students transition back to school on-site.
